- 1 Outstanding and very rare windup clockwork toy of Sojourner Truth lecturing from a pulpit. She wears a blue/white calico dress and white apron. When wound, she moves back and forth as she pounds right hand on podium to make her point. Paper label on polished wood base reads "Womens Rights". Her face is terrific, displaying a broad toothy grin and bright glass eyes. Superb condition with exception of wear to the paper label - but the inscription is completely readable. Overall height 10", complete with key. 9,950.
- 2 Superb condition 5 1/2" papier mache cigar case. Golden eagle and flag banners flank color portrait "Henry Clay - candidad for 1844 - The American Statesman", with 4 line poem below. Minor expected wear to leather bellows at sides, otherwise pristine. 4,850.
- 3 An amazing typed and signed letter of Theodore Roosevelt as Governor of NY, written April 2 1900 on letterhead of Executive Chamber, State of NY. It's well known that Mark Hanna and Republican power brokers chose TR for the Vice Presidency as a means of removing him from the public limelight and reducing his political power. The assassination of William McKinley of course had exactly the opposite effect. This letter, written two months before the Republican National Convention, gives uncommon insight to TR's thoughts at the time. He writes to T. St John Gaffney of NYC... "Most emphatically the Vice Presidential nomination is the last thing I want. I would rather be professor of history in some college..." Letter in fine condition but the signature is faded (yet completely readable). Accompanied by superb cabinet photo by CM Bell, Wash DC, boldly inscribed in ink "Hon T St John Gaffney with the good wishes of Theodore Roosevelt Nov 6 1905" signed as President. The pair in beautiful wine velvet mat, framed 11 X 17. NOTE - In 1906 TR appointed Mr Gaffney as US Consul General in Dresden, Germany. 3,250.
- 4 Exceptional large 23 X 36 poster for DeWitt's Zouave Light Infantry Tactics. Scene of zouave about to kill Confederate soldier with his sword. Wonderful bold bright condition. Folded into eighths as issued - minor separation on lower horizontal fold, insignificant small stain upper left corner. Overall excellent - will look near mint when framed. Some of the best graphics I've seen on a Civil War broadside. Printed entirely in red & blue (no black). 5,950.
- 5 Beautiful quarter plate daguerreotype of an oil painting by J & J Bard depicting the paddlewheel Hudson River steamer "Senator". Superb condition in split leather case. The Mariners Museum in Newport News VA owns a slightly different version of the Senator, done by Bard in 1847. As per the listing in The Bard Brothers by Anthony Peluso, it is well recorded that they did multiple paintings (as many as six) of many of the ships in their repertoire. Copy of the Peluso book included. 6,000.
- 6 I've owned this wonderful portrait for 17 years. Oil on canvas 28 X 26 in period frame 32 X 29. "Stonewall Jackson - Born 1824". Painted circa 1861-62. Ed Exith Gregor Halpert, ex Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Folk Art Collection, published in American Folk Art 1730-1960 (Louisiana State University 1968). AARFAC labels on reverse. Relined, minor bit of restoration. A marvelous piece of Civil War folk art. 22,500.
- 7 Near mint Grant - Colfax flag, 11 1/2 X 14 1/2 in nice custom frame 17 X 20. 5,750.
- 8 Exceptional full page typescript on White House stationery "Excerpts from Memorial Address on Theodore Roosevelt Delivered by Honorable Warren G Harding Jan 29 1919". Boldly signed at bottom by Harding, obviously as President a couple of years later. Beautiful condition, great content on TR's life, vision, patriotism & creed. Certificate of authenticity from PSA/DNA (if anybody cares). 2,750.
- 9 Great set of 250 ivory poker chips in hinged case with lift out tray, card storage compartments underneath, complete with original key. 50 chips in each of 5 different colors. Darkest color is black (very rare) in fluorescent light, but has a reddish tinge under incandescent light. Superb condition. 7,250.
- 10 Wonderful and large 48" full bodied gilded copper weathervane of a northern pike. Superb condition with only minor insignificant wear to the gilding. Circa 1890-1910. With custom wall mount (not shown). 11,000.
- 11 (difficult to photograph) 9 1/2 spear point dirk by Corsan, Denton & Co., Sheffield. Blade with "PIERCE & KING" in large block letters covering almost 3" of the 5" blade. Scattered pitting as expected, but you can read it from 6 feet away! Leather covered pasteboard scabbard with all losses, and missing the silvered fitting at tip. In 1852 the company had an outlet at 15 Platt St, NYC, where the knife was no doubt sold to an avid supporter. 2,250.
- 12 Civil War soldiers diaries are common - there must be hundreds sold every year - but how many have you seen from the Mexican War? A pocket diary 4 X 6 with 91 of the approx. 150 pages inscribed at various Mexican locations from Nov 26 1846 to July 8 1847. Includes complete alphabetical roster of about 100 men and non-commissioned officers of "Boon Company". At the back of the diary are Richardson Family birth records including John Napoleon Richardson, born 1822, listed in the company roster and obviously the author of the diary. Extensive battle content, geographical descriptions, personal narratives, etc. Numerous mentions of Santa Anna, General Scott, other Generals. Fine condition. Call for more information. 5,000.
- 13 This great teapot appeared recently in a major Philadelphia auction of early historical ceramics. I had planned to pay up to $20,000 to secure it for my own collection but was disappointed to find that the decoration was later than the period of the teapot. A wonderful oval serpentine porcelain teapot, English circa 1790-1800, probably Newhall. Height 5 1/2, length 9 1/2. Superbly detailed hand painted portrait George Washington, reverse with eagle Great Seal and 16 stars. Fine sprig decoration around the paintings, top rim and lid. The portrait and eagle are from the centennial colonial revival period circa 1870's. Perfect condition. 3,250.

- 17 1" clear glass seal, intaglio portrait Oliver Cromwell. Microscopic artist signature and date 1849. 275.
- 18 Clear glass seal, kneeling slave "Am I Not a Man and a Brother". Residue of red sealing wax makes the design really stand out. 650.

- 24 Washington inaugural button 1789 "GW - Long Live the President". A dug example with expected light surface pitting, nice brown color, original shank. See Hake 3004, Sullivan 1789-7. A very pleasing example for the collector who doesn't want to spend $4,000. 1,500.

- 26 Very rare John Wilkes Booth tintype carte de visite by Pond & Humbleton, Buffalo. Imprinted name and poem. Minor light foxing to card, tintype superb. 1,200.
- 27 The earliest Custer autograph I have seen. A 2" X 8" handwritten note on blue paper, penned by the principal of Custer's school circa 1855. He no doubt wrote a blank one for each student, who would then fill in their own name. "The bearer - G A Custer - is a member in good standing of the McNeely Normal School, and we believe him to be a young man of good moral character. J Ogden, Princ of NS". At age 16 Custer attended the McNeely School to improve his mathematics so he could go to West Point. Guaranteed genuine of course. 6,500.
